EXECUTIVE COACH &
FACILITATOR

---

BACKGROUND

Swati is an energetic business partner whose thirty years of business experience includes strengths-based executive coaching, the design and delivery of high-impact leadership programs, and human resources strategy. Swati coaches leaders in executive management, business unit leadership, technology, human resources, consulting, operations, marketing, sales, healthcare, financial services, education, travel, food, consumer goods, and not-for-profit.

Her positions at well-respected companies such as General Electric, The William Wrigley Jr. Company, and Deloitte, have ranged from general management and corporate strategy to culture change and the design and implementation of on-time, in-budget, global initiatives. She has held executive level positions in global human resources, consulting, information technology, and corporate strategy.

Swati holds an MBA from The University of Chicago, Booth School of Business and she is a Professionally Certified Coach (PCC) through the International Coach Federation. She also leverages various leadership and team effectiveness tools in her work, such as Immunity to Change, Leadership Circle 360, Emotional Intelligence EQi, Hogan Assessments, Intercultural Development Inventory, MBTI and The Five Behaviors of a Cohesive Team.
